

Join the New Directions California Coalition

I would like join the New Directions California Coalition and endorse its four guiding principles:

We believe that all our drug policies must continually be examined for both the positive and negative impacts they have on the public's health and safety. We are guided by four principles:

1. The war on drugs has failed and it is time for a new approach to drug policy.
2. Effective drug policy balances prevention, harm reduction, treatment and public safety.
3. Alcohol and other drug use is fundamentally a health issue and must be addressed as such.
4. Drug policies must be based on scientific evidence, compassion, health and human rights.
